WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings—awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII—are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced.

The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Illinois, whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders—white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on "massive excellence" that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20 five-point diamonds.

The ring was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Marzullo.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years, and 33 five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

The Super Bowl XI ring design, featuring a large center diamond and 26 five-point diamonds on the ring face was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach John Madden, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards artist Elliot Ingberg.

THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS

The Raiders, who began play in the American Football League in 1960, enter their 38th year of professional football competition, including the last 27 as a member of the National Football League.

For a total span stretching over four decades—the 1960s, '70s, '80s and now the '90s—the Raiders have been the most dominant team in major professional sports since Al Davis first pledged in 1963 to build the finest organization in pro sports.

The Green Bay Packers were the NFL team of the '60s, the Pittsburgh Steelers the team of the '70s, the San Francisco 49ers the team of the '80s. But only one team was dominant throughout those three memorable decades and has continued its tradition of greatness into the '90s.

The Raiders, winners of three World Championships of Professional Football, are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the '60s, the '70s and the '80s. The Raiders are the only original American Football League team to have won a Super Bowl since 1969 and have already done so three times. The Raiders are the only AFC team to have won a Super Bowl since 1980—and have done so twice. The Raiders are the only AFC team to have won Super Bowls under more than one head coach.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new American Football League, and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory.

During that memorable 34-year span in Oakland and Los Angeles, the Raiders won 319 league games, tied 11 and lost only 176. The Raiders continue to stand alone atop the National Football League for this period with their winning percentage of .644.

Commitment to Excellence has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the '60s, '70s, '80s and now the '90s.

Equally impressive as their domination of pro football is the Raiders' long reign as the most successful organization in all of the major professional sports world for four decades:

TOP PROFESSIONAL SPORTS RECORDS
1963-1996
Professional Sport	Top Team	Winning Percentage
1. Football	OAKLAND RAIDERS	.644
2. Hockey	Montreal Canadiens	.631
3. Basketball	Los Angeles Lakers	.628
4. Baseball	Baltimore Orioles	.546

The Raiders have continually defied the odds to maintain their unparalleled level of excellence as professional sports' winningest team for over 30 years.

Since 1967, when the Raiders won the AFL Championship and went to the Super Bowl in their very first season in the playoffs, the Silver and Black has fought its way into the playoffs 18 times, played in 12 Championship games, won or shared 14 Division Championships and won the American Football League Championship, three American Football Conference Championships and three World Championships of Professional Football.

Eight of the great players who proudly wore Silver and Black, as well as owner-leader Al Davis, have already been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame. Five different Raider head coaches have already been selected as Pro Football Coach-of-the-Year.

In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970-1996 period of interconference play, the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 64-34-1 record against present NFC rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970—Monday Night Football. The Raiders' total domination of this prime-time ABC television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 33-14-1 record in Monday night play. In the 27 years of this series, the Raiders are 13-1-0 over the three decades in Monday Night Football game at home.

For their four decades—the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s—the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

Challengers to Raider domination of professional football arise in the 1990s as they have in the '60s, the '70s and the '80s. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. The past has been glorious, but THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS IS IN ITS FUTURE.

RAIDERS OWNERS

AL DAVIS

A total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 34 years to the very top of the professional sports world.

During these decades of destiny the Raiders battled their way to the best record in major professional sports.

In these memorable 34 years, the Raiders have had 26 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season.

Davis' four-decade professional football story, from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and chief executive officer of pro sports' winningest team—the Oakland Raiders—is a standard that no one in the history of professional sports can match for winning and excellence.

In April, 1966, the then 36-year old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted reluctantly, for first and foremost, Al Davis was a football coach, and knew that assuming the Commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career.

But AFL owners, in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL president Ralph Wilson as "a coaching genius and astute administrator."

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to merge.

In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two 13-team conferences—the AFC and NFC—were formed for 1970.

As a member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee, Davis has been a major factor in achieving collective bargaining agreements with the players.

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January, 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a "young coaching genius" by Sports Illustrated and "the most inventive mind in the country" by Scholastic Coach magazine.

The Raiders—"picked to finish dead last"—thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship. In 1963, Davis was named Pro Football Coach of the Year.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record eight presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

The eight great enshrinees to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell and Ted Hendricks.

Davis became enshrined on August 1, 1992 when he was presented for induction into the Hall of Fame by former Raider great head coach, and now leading television football analyst, John Madden.

In May of 1991, Al Davis became the very first recipient of the NFL Players Association's Retired Players Award of Excellence "for his contributions to the men who played the game."

Born July 4, 1929, Al Davis was raised in Brockton, Massachusetts, and moved at an early age to Brooklyn, New York. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Al Davis recently received a Letterman of Distinction Award from Syracuse University.

In 1950, Davis was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Virginia.

There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, National Collegiate Champions, in a squad game.

Davis next served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach.

In 1960, head coach Sid Gillman hired Davis as offensive end coach of the newly formed Los Angeles Chargers.

From there it was on to meet the challenges with the Raiders of Oakland in 1963.

RAIDER COACHES

JOE BUGEL Head Coach

Joe Bugel—whose coaching career has spanned four decades—is in his first year as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

"Joe Bugel represents what the Raiders are about," said Oakland Raiders owner Al Davis on January 30, 1997 while announcing Bugel's elevation to head coach of the Silver and Black. "He's a dynamic, driving personality."

Bugel, 56, becomes the 11th head coach in the organization's 37 years of professional football competition—first in the American Football League, then in the National Football League.

He joins an accomplished group of men who have served as field generals of the Silver and Black. Five Raider coaches were selected as pro football "Coach of the Year"—Al Davis in 1963, John Rauch in 1967, John Madden in 1969, Tom Flores in 1982 and Art Shell in 1990—a mark unparalleled in professional football history.

Bugel is a veteran of over 30 years of coaching, including 21 in the NFL and the last two with the Silver and Black as the team's assistant head coach/offense.

Under Bugel's offensive guidance, the Raiders led the entire NFL in average per rush at 4.8, which broke the old team record of 4.63 yards set in 1968, 1972, 1973 and 1987. Running back Napoleon Kaufman led the league in average per rush at 5.8 yards per attempt. The Raiders finished fifth in the AFC in total offense.

"We're going to get back to the philosophy that won three Super Bowls," said Bugel. "Raider football is power football and that means being able to run the ball. You pass to score and run to win. We are going to play the Raider way, which is smart, tough, physical, in-your-face football."

The native of football-rich Western Pennsylvania was head coach for the Phoenix Cardinals from 1990-93, accumulating a 20-44 record, including a 7-9 record in his final season while playing in the tough NFC Eastern Division.

In his 17 seasons as an NFL assistant, Bugel-associated teams have posted a 159-99 record (.616 winning percentage), including 13 winning seasons and eight playoff appearances. Bugel participated in three Super Bowls, six conference championship games and 21 playoff contests.

"Our goal is to win the Super Bowl, not go to the Super Bowl but to win the Super Bowl. To me, this is the ultimate. It's a golden opportunity. I thank the current players. For them to give me that support means a lot."

From 1981-89, Bugel was assistant head coach in charge of the offensive line for the Washington Redskins.

The team appeared in three Super Bowls and captured two World Championships of Professional Football during his tenure there, losing only to the Raiders in Super Bowl XVIII.

Bugel developed the "Hogs," the fabled offensive line unit for the Redskins. He began as the Redskins' offensive coordinator in 1981 and was promoted to assistant head coach in 1983.

Under Bugel's tutelage, the Redskins scored an NFL record 541 points (1983), boasted four 1,000-yard rushers, one 4,000-yard passer and nine 1,000-yard receivers.

From 1977-80, Bugel was offensive line coach for the Houston Oilers, during which time club records were set in rushing and passing (1980). In 1978, the Oilers allowed the fewest sacks in the entire NFL.

Bugel broke into the professional coaching ranks as offensive line coach with the Detroit Lions from 1975-76. He held college assistant positions at Ohio State in 1974 under Woody Hayes, at Iowa State in 1973, Navy from 1969-72 and at Western Kentucky, his alma mater, from 1964-68.

Born March 10, 1940 in Pittsburgh, Bugel was a two-way star at Munhall High in his hometown. He walked on the football team at Western Kentucky and eventually earned a scholarship. Bugel was an All-Conference guard from 1960-63 and also saw time at linebacker.

Bugel earned a bachelor's degree from Western Kentucky in physical education in 1963 and a master's degree in counseling from the Bowling Green, Kentucky school in 1964. Bugel and his wife Brenda have three daughters—Angie, Holly and Jennifer.

DAVE ADOLPH Linebackers

Dave Adolph, a veteran of 18 years of service in the NFL, rejoins the Raiders as linebackers coach after two seasons as defensive coordinator of San Diego. Adolph spent the the 1992-94 seasons in the AFC West as defensive coordinator of Kansas City. Prior to that stint—which saw the Chiefs make the playoffs each season—Adolph was defensive coordinator for the Raiders from 1989-91. He was defensive coordinator for Cleveland in 1984 and from 1986-89 and for the Chargers in 1985. He started his coaching career in 1963 at Akron—his alma mater. Adolph was an All-Conference guard and linebacker. Adolph also coached at Ohio State under Woody Hayes, and at Illinois, Kentucky and Connecticut. The Adolph family includes wife Betty and five children.

FRED BILETNIKOFF Wide Receivers

Fred Biletnikoff, in his 23rd year with the Raiders, returns as receivers coach. He spent the past two seasons in charge of quality control after six years coaching receivers. The 54-year old Pro Football Hall of Famer played 14 seasons for the Raiders. He coached wide receivers for Calgary of the CFL from 1987-88. OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM

Oakland Raiders home games are played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. The Coliseum opened on September 18, 1966 with the Raiders hosting the Kansas City Chiefs. The Coliseum, located three miles from Oakland International Airport, was built by the City of Oakland and the County of Alameda.

The all-time Coliseum record for football attendance is 61,656 on November 4, 1996, when the Raiders hosted the Denver Broncos in a Monday Night Football contest.

The Coliseum underwent major renovation that actually began during the Raiders 1995 season. Capacity at the remodeled Coliseum is now 63,026 with added luxury suites, club levels, two new club lounges, new locker rooms, remodeled press box, new video scoreboards and additional amenities.

The Coliseum playing surface is natural grass. Nearly 100 million people have passed through the turnstiles of the Coliseum, which rests on 120 acres.

RAIDERS TICKET INFORMATION

The Oakland Football Marketing Association (OFMA) is handling the sale of Personal Seat Licenses (PSLs), Luxury Suites, Club Seats and other seat rights to Oakland Raiders games at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Oakland Raiders MEDIA CREDENTIALS, 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway, Alameda CA 94502 or by fax to (510) 864-5160. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Media parking is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to stadium parking. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Bill Di Carlo at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum at 510-615-4800 ext. 258 to secure locations.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, PRESS WILL-CALL: The media entrance, as well as Press Will-Call, at the stadium is located at the North Pass Gate at the bottom of "F" parking lot.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. The photographers check-in is the Media Entrance/Press Will-Call.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS, LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Raiders interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. Raiders head coach Joe Bugel conducts his postgame news conference in a room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitors locker room.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on the loge level. Access is by the press elevator only. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and players comments and quarter summaries are available after the game. If postgame faxing of final stats or play-by-play is need, contact a member of the Raiders P.R. staff.

PRESS LOUNGE: The press lounge is located behind Section 117 (second floor from the press elevator). It opens two hours prior to kickoff for accredited media members and football personnel. The press lounge remains open during games and may be used for overflow.

FAX ON DEMAND: The Raiders weekly release is available 24-hours a day through the fax on demand fax retrieval system. Simply call (770) 399-3066 from your fax machine headset. Enter the NFL pass code (7575) followed by the pound key (#). The automated message will then ask for you to enter your request number (four digit extensions listed below), followed by the pound key (#). The Raiders' four digit extensions are listed below:

RAIDERS TRAIN IN NAPA

The Oakland Raiders are now in their second year of summer training in Napa, California.

The Raiders are housed at the Napa Valley Marriott Hotel and Conference Center with practice sessions held at the adjacent Redwood Middle School.

There are two 100-yard practice fields with an additional 50-yard field at the facility. The Raiders summer training facility also consists of a 10,000 square foot field house that includes locker rooms, showers, training and equipment quarters. There's an additional 3,000 square foot outdoor weight training area.

The facilities serve the Oakland Raiders during the summer training camp period and are available for Napa youth activities and other community functions during the year.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

When the Oakland Raiders take the field for their first pre-season game against the Dallas Cowboys in Dallas, that game and all Raider games will be heard on the NEW 50,000-WATT SPORTS STATION, 1050 AM.

The new station will be called THE TICKET.

In a joint announcement by the Oakland Raiders and the Susquehanna Radio Corp., the owners of all-sports radio station KNBR 68 and the recently-acquired 1050AM, for the future.

"The Oakland Raiders are excited about participating in this new radio venture which will offer Raider fans a dynamic perspective of pro football's winningest team," said Amy Trask, who heads the Oakland Raiders business operations. "We look forward to helping build a championship radio station—one that, like the Raiders, is a powerful force with a 'Commitment to Excellence.'"

Tony Salvatore, Susquehanna vice president and general manager of KNBR 68 and "The Ticket," said revealed that the newly-acquired 50,000-watt station will have an all-sports format and that Oakland Raiders football will be the cornerstone of the new station's programming.

"Imagine starting a brand new sports station with a premiere NFL franchise. We have forged a great partnership with the Raiders and look forward to working together. Not only will we be carrying all of the games live, we also have a regular "Coach's Show" with Joe Bugel and expect Raider football to be topic No. 1 on all of our shows."

On game days, The Ticket's extensive coverage includes 8 hours of Raider Radio—4 hours of game coverage along with 2 1/2-hour pregame and 90-minute postgame shows.

Greg Papa begins his first year of broadcasting Silver and Black football. Papa also serves as the Golden State Warriors and Oakland A's play-by-play commentator. Papa got his start in broadcasting at the age of 21 when, in 1984, the Indiana Pacers hired him as a back-up announcer. The following year, Papa was named as the Pacers top announcer where he remained for another season before joining the Warriors in 1986.

Papa will be teamed in the booth this year with former quarterback David Humm—now in his third season of providing color commentary on Raiders broadcasts—and former Raiders quarterback and head coach Tom Flores.

Humm served two tours of duty with the Raiders—from 1975-79, then from 1983-84—and was a member of two Raider teams that won the World Championship of Professional Football. Humm also played for Baltimore from 1981-82.

Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to have a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV; as an assistant with the Raiders in XI; and as a head coach of the Silver and Black in Super Bowls XV and XVIII.

In his eighth year with the Raider radio team is 16-year NFL veteran quarterback Jim Plunkett, Heisman Trophy winner at Stanford, MVP as the Raiders won the World Championship of Professional Football in Super Bowl XV and again the winning quarterback as the Raiders won Super Bowl XVIII. Plunkett, a nine-year Raider star, will be featured on pre-game and postgame shows.

Veteran Bay Area radio sports reporter Bruce Macgowan will provide sideline reports throughout the season.

Joining Plunkett during the four hours of pre-and post-game programming will be former coach and current sports analyst Artie Gigantino and veteran KNRB morning sportscaster Kevin "The Rat" Radich. New hosts of The Ticket's morning show, Ron & Don, will provide special tailgate reports.

Silver and Black football in 1997 will be broadcast in Spanish originating on KLOK 1170 AM with Luis Bravo and Erwin Higueros calling the action.
